

SAMANTHA THOMPSON

Nurse practitioner student currently pursuing a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree at Duke University. Skilled at providing comprehensive patient care in medical-surgical units, working with interdisciplinary teams to optimize patient outcomes. Certified in family, pediatric, and adult-gerontology acute care through the American Nurses Credentialing Center.

CONTACT

 (789) 123-4567

 email@example.com

 LinkedIn

 Durham, NC 12345

KEY SKILLS

- Clinical assessment and diagnosis
- Critical care and emergency response
- Medical documentation and EHR management
- Medication administration
- Patient care coordination

EDUCATION

Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP)
Candidate
DUKE UNIVERSITY, Durham, NC |
Expected Graduation: [Year]

Master of Science in Nursing (MSN)
JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY,
Baltimore, MD

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

REGISTERED NURSE | JOHNS HOPKINS HOSPITAL, BALTIMORE, MD

JUNE 2021 TO PRESENT

- Provide patient care in a high-volume medical-surgical unit, diagnosing and treating complex conditions
- Collaborate with health care professionals to reduce patient readmission rates by 20%
- Use EHR to document patient information, improving accuracy and efficiency by 15%

NURSE INTERN | UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL, PHILADELPHIA, PA

JUNE 2018 TO MAY 2021

- Co-developed patient care plans, improving patient satisfaction by 10%
- Gained hands-on experience in various clinical settings, performing physical exams and assessments
- Honed communication skills through regular patient and family interactions

CERTIFICATION

- American Nurses Credentialing Center:
- Adult-Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioner (AGACNP-BC)
- Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP-BC)
- Pediatric Nurse Practitioner (PNP-BC)