

ROGER STONE

A warehouse manager with over eight years of experience in logistics, supply chain management, and inventory control. A proven track record of implementing data-driven strategies and comprehensive training programs to drive operational excellence, improve production capabilities, and reduce inventory costs.

KEY SKILLS

- Budget management
- Data analysis
- Inventory control
- Lean manufacturing
- OSHA compliance
- Staff training and development

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Logistics and Supply Chain Management

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA,
Athens, GA
2016

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Warehouse Manager

Logistics Solutions, Atlanta, GA | May 2018 – present

- Lead a team of over 30 warehouse associates, oversee daily operations, define workflows, and implement new training programs to ensure compliance with OSHA safety standards, contributing to a 50% reduction in workplace accidents
- Reduce inventory turnover by 12% by optimizing stock levels and implementing a just-in-time inventory system
- Identify opportunities to streamline receiving and shipping operations, lowering processing time by 24% and labor costs by 18%

Assistant Warehouse Manager

Mega Warehousing Co., Atlanta, GA | June 2016 – May 2018

- Managed warehouse operations and coordinated inbound and outbound shipments to achieve a 98% on-time performance rating over three years
- Reduced storage costs by reorganizing the warehouse layout and improving space utilization by 20%
- Performed regular audits and OSHA safety training sessions for 25 staff

CERTIFICATIONS

- Certified Warehouse Logistics Professional (CWLP) | International Warehouse Logistics Association (IWLA) | 2016