

HIDEO ARAKI

New York, NY 12345 | (123) 456-7890 | email@example.com | LinkedIn | Portfolio

PROFILE

Child care teacher with a bachelor's degree in early childhood education and extensive experience in classroom management and lesson planning. Proven ability to develop and implement age-appropriate curriculum, monitor child development, and ensure child safety in a learning environment. Recognized for improving children's engagement by 30% and maintaining a zero safety incident record.

KEY SKILLS

- Classroom management
- Lesson planning
- Reporting and documentation

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Lead Child Care Teacher

Bright Horizons Family Solutions, Athens, GA | June 2018 - Present

- Developed and implemented an age-appropriate curriculum that improved children's engagement by 30%
- Monitor and report on the development of over 20 children, pinpointing and addressing developmental issues promptly
- Ensure child safety by maintaining a clean and safe environment, resulting in zero safety incidents during tenure

Assistant Child Care Teacher

KinderCare Learning Centers, Los Angeles, CA | January 2018 - May 2018

- Co-developed and implemented an age-appropriate curriculum that helped improve children's learning outcomes by 20%
- Supported lead teacher in monitoring and reporting on child development, aiding in the early identification of developmental issues
- Helped maintain a safe and clean environment, adhering to all safety regulations and procedures

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education

University of Georgia, Athens, GA | May 2018

Associate of Science in Child Development

Los Angeles Valley College, Los Angeles, CA | December 2017

Bachelor of Arts in Child and Adolescent Development

San Francisco State University, San Francisco, CA | May 2019

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Child Development Associate (CDA), Council for Professional Recognition, March 2019
- Certified Childcare Professional (CCP), National Early Childhood Program Accreditation, February 2017
- Early Childhood Education Certification (ECE), State Board of Education, February 2016