

Samantha Thompson

Nurse practitioner student currently pursuing a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree at Duke University. Skilled at providing comprehensive patient care in medical-surgical units, working with interdisciplinary teams to optimize patient outcomes. Certified in family, pediatric, and adult-gerontology acute care through the American Nurses Credentialing Center.

-  Durham, NC
-  (789) 123-4567
-  email@example.com
-  LinkedIn | Portfolio

KEY SKILLS

- Clinical assessment and diagnosis
- Critical care and emergency response
- Medical documentation and EHR management
- Medication administration
- Patient care coordination

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

REGISTERED NURSE | JOHNS HOPKINS HOSPITAL, BALTIMORE, MD JUNE 2021 – PRESENT

- Provide patient care in a high-volume medical-surgical unit, diagnosing and treating complex conditions.
- Collaborate with health care professionals to reduce patient readmission rates by 20%.
- Use EHR to document patient information, improving accuracy and efficiency by 15%.

NURSING INTERN | UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL, PHILADELPHIA, PA JUNE 2018 – MAY 2021

- Co-developed patient care plans, improving patient satisfaction by 10%.
- Gained hands-on experience in various clinical settings, performing physical exams and assessments.
- Honed communication skills through regular patient and family interactions.

EDUCATION

- Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) Candidate
Duke University, Durham, NC | May 2023

Expected Graduation

- Master of Science in Nursing (MSN)
Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, MD

CERTIFICATIONS

American Nurses Credentialing Center

- Adult-Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioner (AGACNP-BC)
- Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP-BC)
- Pediatric Nurse Practitioner (PNP-BC)