

Nathan Torres

Ecologist committed to biodiversity conservation and ecosystem health

Dedicated ecologist with seven years of experience in biodiversity research, ecological restoration, and environmental impact studies. Skilled in species monitoring, vegetation mapping, and habitat modeling.

CONTACT

 (123) 666-7777

 nathan.torres@email.com

 LinkedIn

 Denver, CO

KEY SKILLS

- Biodiversity assessments
- Ecosystem restoration
- Environmental impact reports
- GIS
- Wildlife population monitoring

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Ecology
Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO
May 2016

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Ecologist | Colorado Environmental Institute, Denver, CO
March 2019 – Present

- Conduct ecosystem health assessments for public and private sector projects, influencing environmental policy decisions
- Led vegetation restoration efforts covering 500+ acres of degraded prairie habitats

Field Research Technician | Rocky Mountain Biological Laboratory, Crested Butte, CO

May 2016 – February 2019

- Supported long-term ecological monitoring programs focusing on alpine environments
- Conducted species surveys and soil sampling across designated research plots