

John Everhart

Boulder, CO 98765 | (123) 111-2222 | john.everhart@email.com | LinkedIn

Environmental scientist dedicated to ecological restoration and climate resilience

Over six years of experience specializing in ecological field studies, environmental impact assessments, and sustainability initiatives. Strong background in climate adaptation research, environmental risk analysis, and habitat conservation planning.

Professional Experience

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENTIST | ECOVISION CONSULTANTS | DENVER, CO | MAY 2020 – PRESENT

- Conduct climate change vulnerability assessments for over 15 municipal clients, leading to successful grant applications totaling $2.5 million
- Coordinate multi-disciplinary teams to complete environmental site assessments under tight regulatory deadlines
- Develop detailed reports and restoration strategies to support wetland conservation projects

ENVIRONMENTAL FIELD TECHNICIAN | GREEN EARTH SERVICES | BOULDER, CO | JULY 2017 – APRIL 2020

- Collected and analyzed soil, water, and air samples to ensure compliance with federal and state regulations
- Helped create GIS-based environmental models to improve data visualization and inform mitigation strategies

Key Skills

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| • Climate change modeling | • Data collection and analysis |
| • Environmental impact assessments | • GIS mapping |
| • Wetland restoration | |

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Environmental Science | University of Colorado Boulder, City, ST
March 2017

Certifications

- Certified Environmental Scientist (CES), NREP, May 2019