

Emma Johnson

Skilled and resourceful database administrator

Database administrator with eight years of experience managing large-scale databases and optimizing data storage solutions. Proficient in database security, performance tuning, and backup strategies. Known for ensuring data integrity and availability in high-demand environments.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Information Systems

University of Illinois
Urbana-Champaign, IL | May
2014

KEY SKILLS

- Backup and recovery
- Database security
- MySQL/SQL Server
- Performance tuning
- Query optimization
- Relational database management

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Database Administrator | DataSecure Technologies, Chicago, IL
June 2016 – Present

- Designed and implemented database backup strategies, reducing data recovery times by 40%
- Optimized database performance by fine-tuning SQL queries, improving application efficiency by 30%
- Manage access controls, enhancing database security and protecting sensitive information

Junior Database Administrator | InfoCore Systems, St. Louis, MO
July 2014 – June 2016

- Monitored database performance and resolved issues, ensuring 99.9% uptime
- Assisted in database migrations, streamlining data transfer processes
- Conducted routine audits to ensure data accuracy and integrity