

Owen Sullivan

Botanist passionate about plant research and habitat conservation

Passionate botanist with over six years of experience in plant ecology, botanical surveys, and habitat restoration projects. Skilled in field identification, herbarium management, and GIS mapping for plant populations.

KEY SKILLS

- Botanical field surveys
- Ecosystem restoration
- Herbarium specimen curation
- Invasive species management
- Plant taxonomy

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Botany

University of Wisconsin–Madison
Madison, WI | May 2017

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Botanist | Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, Madison, WI
February 2019 – Present

- Conduct rare plant population surveys, aiding in the protection of endangered species
- Led invasive species management projects, restoring over 250 acres of native prairie

Research Assistant | University of Wisconsin–Madison Botany Department, Madison, WI
May 2017 – January 2019

- Maintained and cataloged over 5,000 herbarium specimens for university research projects
- Supported fieldwork projects documenting floristic changes in wetland ecosystems