

Michael Thompson

Burn Unit ER Nurse

Experienced burn unit ER nurse with nine years of expertise in treating patients with severe burns, inhalation injuries, and trauma. Proficient in fluid resuscitation, pain management, and wound debridement in emergency settings.

Contact

(890) 123-4567

michaelthompson@example.com

LinkedIn | Profile

Dallas, TX 75201

Education

- Master of Science in Nursing (MSN)

University of Texas at Arlington, Arlington

March 2017

- Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN)

University of Texas, Arlington

March 2015

Key Skills

- Burn triage and treatment
- Pain management strategies
- Fluid resuscitation for burn patients
- Wound debridement and infection control
- Coordination with burn rehabilitation teams

Professional Experience

BURN UNIT ER NURSE | PARKLAND MEMORIAL HOSPITAL, DALLAS, TX
SEPTEMBER 2019 – PRESENT

- Provide emergency care for an average of 25 burn patients per shift, ensuring rapid intervention and stabilization.
- Implemented a new pain management protocol, reducing opioid dependency by 20% while maintaining patient comfort.
- Collaborate with plastic surgeons and rehabilitation specialists to develop long-term treatment plans

ER NURSE | UT SOUTHWESTERN MEDICAL CENTER, DALLAS, TX
JUNE 2015 – AUGUST 2019

- Treated patients with severe burns and chemical injuries, ensuring proper wound care and infection prevention.
- Assisted in the development of an advanced fluid resuscitation protocol, reducing complications in critical burn cases by 18%.
- Led staff training sessions on burn triage and emergency treatment procedures.

Certifications

- Advanced Burn Life Support (ABLS) | American Burn Association | value
- Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS) | American Heart Association | value
- Registered Nurse (RN) | Texas | value