

AM

Alex Morgan

Wildland firefighter with eight years of experience in remote emergency response and fire suppression. Experienced in land assessments, controlled burns, and operation of heavy equipment during mitigation efforts. Protect forested land while promoting safety in high-risk zones.

City, ST

(123) 456-7890

email@example.com

LinkedIn

KEY SKILLS

- Controlled burns and mitigation
- Emergency response in remote locations
- Land and vegetation assessment
- Wildland fire suppression

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

WILDLAND FIREFIGHTER | NATIONAL FOREST SERVICE
CITY, ST | MARCH 2017 – PRESENT

- Led fire suppression efforts across 50,000+ acres of forested land, containing 98% of fires within the first 24 hours
- Perform controlled burns to reduce wildfire risks, improving community safety in high-risk zones
- Operate heavy equipment during fire mitigation efforts

FIREFIGHTING CREW MEMBER | STATE FIRE DEPARTMENT
CITY, ST | MAY 2014 – MARCH 2017

- Assisted in wildfire suppression efforts, including digging fire lines and maintaining firebreaks
- Participated in emergency evacuations of remote communities during active wildfires

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science
State University, City, ST | May 2021