

Maya Spencer

Zoologist with expertise in wildlife conservation and behavioral research

Passionate zoologist with over six years of experience conducting field studies, animal behavior observations, and conservation education initiatives. Skilled in GIS mapping, data collection, and endangered species advocacy.

CONTACT

 (123) 555-6666

 maya.spencer@email.com

 LinkedIn

 Tucson, AZ

KEY SKILLS

- Animal behavior analysis
- Conservation biology
- Ecological field research
- GIS and spatial analysis
- Wildlife rehabilitation

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

ZOOLOGIST | ARIZONA CONSERVATION CENTER, TUCSON, AZ
FEBRUARY 2019 – PRESENT

- Led wildlife monitoring projects for endangered species, increasing data collection efficiency by 30% with new drone mapping techniques
- Deliver public education programs to over 1,000 community members annually

WILDLIFE BIOLOGIST INTERN | ARIZONA GAME AND FISH DEPARTMENT, TUCSON, AZ
JUNE 2017 – JUNE 2017

- Supported field surveys and animal tagging operations for state conservation programs
- Assisted in grant writing that secured $250,000 for habitat restoration projects

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Zoology
University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ | May 2017