

Danielle Foster

Art Teacher

Art teacher with nine years of experience inspiring middle and high school students. Committed to fostering creativity through structured lesson plans, critical feedback, and student-led exploration.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Art Education

University of Minnesota ,
Minneapolis, MN
May 2014

Teaching License: Visual Arts (K–12)

State of Minnesota
June 2014

KEY SKILLS

- Art history instruction
- Classroom management
- Curriculum planning
- Digital art software
- Portfolio preparation
- Project-based learning
- Sculpture
- Student exhibitions

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Art teacher | Minneapolis Public Schools, Minneapolis, MN
August 2017 – Present

- Develop and teach standards-based art curriculum to over 200 students per year
- Organize annual school art show that doubled student participation over four years
- Integrate digital tools like tablets and drawing software into daily instruction

Visual arts instructor | Youth Art Collective, Minneapolis, MN
September 2014 – July 2017

- Facilitated after-school workshops in painting and sculpture for grades 5–12
- Helped 30+ students submit portfolios to art high schools and summer programs
- Designed inclusive lesson plans for learners of all abilities