

Kevin Mitchell

Preschool STEM Teacher

Innovative preschool STEM teacher encouraging hands-on learning

Creative and engaging preschool science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) teacher with eight years of experience developing science and math-focused activities for young learners. Skilled in hands-on experiments, inquiry-based learning, and integrating technology into preschool education.

CONTACT

 (567) 890-7890

 kevin.mitchell@email.com

 LinkedIn | Profile

 Denver, CO

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education with a
STEM Focus
University of Colorado, Boulder,
CO
May 2016

KEY SKILLS

- Hands-on STEM activities
- Early math instruction
- Inquiry-based learning
- Experiment-based teaching
- Technology integration

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

PRESCHOOL STEM TEACHER | FUTURE INNOVATORS ACADEMY, DENVER, CO
AUGUST 2018 – PRESENT

- Develop interactive STEM-based lesson plans that engage preschoolers in early science and math concepts
- Incorporate hands-on experiments and technology to enhance solution-seeking skills
- Foster curiosity and a love for learning through inquiry-driven instruction

PRESCHOOL TEACHER ASSISTANT | LITTLE EXPLORERS STEM SCHOOL,
DENVER, CO
JUNE 2016 – JULY 2018

- Assisted in planning and implementing STEM activities for preschool students
- Introduced age-appropriate coding games and robotics kits into the curriculum
- Supported students in hands-on exploration of science and math concepts