

Julian Cross

Public Health Social Worker Bridging Health Equity Gaps
Experienced public health social worker with eight years of experience addressing community health disparities. Skilled in health promotion, advocacy, and epidemiological collaboration.

EDUCATION

Master of Social Work (MSW)

Boston Universit
Boston, MA

Bachelor of Social Work (BSW)

University of Massachusetts
Boston
Boston, MA

KEY SKILLS

- Community health advocacy
- Data collection and analysis
- Health education campaigns
- Program evaluation
- Resource mobilization

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Public Health Social Worker | Boston Public Health Commission, Boston, MA March 2018 – Present

- Coordinate outreach programs targeting underserved neighborhoods
- Collaborate with epidemiologists to assess and address emerging health risks
- Manage evaluations of community interventions for program effectiveness

Health Outreach Specialist | Massachusetts Department of Public Health, Boston, MA August 2015 – July 2018

- eveloped culturally sensitive health education materials
- Facilitated public forums addressing HIV prevention and chronic disease management
- Created resource networks for immigrant and refugee populations

CERTIFICATIONS

- Certified Health Education Specialist (CHES), National Commission for Health Education Credentialing