

Clarissa Grant

Math Substitute Teacher

Certified math substitute teacher with six years of experience supporting students in algebra, geometry, and pre-calculus. Specializes in translating abstract math concepts into digestible, real-world examples.

CONTACT

 (000) 000-0000

 email@example.com

 Denver, CO 80202

KEY SKILLS

- Algebra and geometry instruction
- Curriculum alignment
- Math tutoring
- Problem-solving
- Standards-based teaching

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Mathematics
University of Colorado, Boulder, CO
May 2016

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Math substitute teacher | Denver Public Schools, Denver, CO
August 2019 – Present

- Teach math lessons in grades 6–12, with an emphasis on clarity and real-world applications
- Provide short- and long-term math instruction based on teacher absence
- Introduce step-by-step guides for struggling students

Math tutor | Mile High Academy, Denver, CO
July 2016 – July 2019

- Delivered individualized tutoring in algebra and geometry
- Helped students prepare for ACT/SAT exams, resulting in improved math section scores
- Worked with teachers to align tutoring sessions with class content

CERTIFICATIONS

- Colorado Substitute Teaching License, Colorado Department of Education, August 2019
- Registered Behavior Technician (RBT), BACB, March 2021