

MARISOL TREVINO

Middle school ELA teacher with seven years in Title I classrooms. Strong record raising reading levels for struggling readers, including ELLs and students with IEPs. NYS certified in English 7-12 and ESOL.

CONTACT INFORMATION

(585) 412-3098

marisol.trevino@example.com

Linkedin.com/in/marisoltrevino

Rochester, NY

KEY SKILLS

- Differentiated instruction
- Workshop model (reading and writing)
- Co-teaching (ICT)
- Running records and STAR data
- Google Classroom, Schoology, NewsELA
- SIOP for ELL instruction
- PBIS and restorative practices
- Parent conferencing

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

7th Grade ELA Teacher | Brookline Heights Middle School, Rochester, NY |
February 2020 – Present

- Lifted average student reading growth by 1.8 grade levels per year on STAR Reading, against a building target of 1.2.
- Redesigned the 7th grade writing curriculum around argument and narrative cycles; department adopted the unit map in 2023.
- Co-taught with the special education team for 32 students on IEPs, holding ELA proficiency for that group within 4 points of the general roster.
- Ran a Wednesday after-school book club that brought in 22 reluctant readers across the year.

6th Grade ELA Teacher | Brookline Heights Middle School, Rochester, NY | June 2017 – January 2020

- Taught five sections of ELA averaging 28 students per class, including two ICT sections.
- Built running records and small-group rotations that moved 19 of 24 below-level readers to on-grade-level by year end.
- Mentored two student teachers from Nazareth College through full-semester placements.
- Served on the school's PBIS committee; helped cut classroom referrals from 6th grade by about a third.

EDUCATION

M.S. Ed., Literacy Education (B-6, 5-12)
University at Buffalo | May 2009

B.A., English
SUNY Geneseo, 2017 | May 2017

NYS Initial Certification: English 7-12, ESOL K-12