

DEVON ASARE-KLEIN

Elementary Teacher

Fifth-grade teacher with 6 years across two NC districts, strongest in math instruction and data-driven small groups. Known for steady classroom management and pulling reluctant writers into the work.

CONTACT INFORMATION

-  (704) 555-0167
-  devon.ak@example.com
-  linkedin.com/in/devonak
-  Charlotte, NC, NY 12345

SKILLS

- Standards-based math instruction
- Writing workshop and conferring
- iReady, mClass, and EOG data analysis
- Inclusion and co-teaching
- PLC leadership
- PowerSchool and Canvas
- Classroom management for grades 3-5
- AIG differentiation
- Beginning teacher mentoring

EXPERIENCE

FIFTH GRADE TEACHER | HOLLOWAY PARK ELEMENTARY | CHARLOTTE, NC | 2021-PRESENT

- Raised math EOG proficiency from 62% to 84% across three years; class outpaced the school average each year.
- Run daily Number Talks and a 30-minute math intervention block built around iReady diagnostic groupings.
- Serve as grade-level chair for a team of five teachers, leading weekly PLCs and writing common assessments.
- Piloted a writing workshop model that the school adopted in grades 3-5 the following year.
- Coach a new teacher each year through the district's BT support program.

FOURTH GRADE TEACHER | RIVERBEND ELEMENTARY SCHOOL | GREENSBORO, NC | 2018-2021

- Taught self-contained fourth grade with class sizes of 24-28, including an average of 6 students on IEPs.
- Co-planned an inclusion model with the EC teacher that pulled small-group support into the general classroom.
- Built a classroom library of around 800 leveled titles, organized by genre and Lexile band.
- Led the school's Battle of the Books team; team placed second in the regional competition in 2020.

EDUCATION

- M.A.T., Elementary Education, UNC Greensboro | June 2019
- B.A., English, North Carolina A&T State University | June 2017
- NC Continuing Professional License, K-6 (active); AIG add-on licensure |