Elementary Teacher

(919) 555-0142 · Raleigh, NC 12345 · maya.ellsworth@example.com

Third- and fourth-grade teacher with 7 years in Title I classrooms across two districts. Built guided reading blocks that moved 23 of 26 students up at least one reading level in a single year. Comfortable co-planning with ESL and SPED teams and running data meetings for grade-level peers.

Professional Experience

Fourth Grade Teacher | Briarstone Elementary School, Raleigh, NC
2021 – Present

- Lead reading and writing instruction for two heterogeneous sections, including 9 students on IEPs and 6 multilingual learners.
- Restructured the literacy block into 20-minute small-group rotations; mid-year benchmark scores rose an average of 17 points over the prior cohort.
- Co-chair the grade-level data team, pulling iReady and DIBELS reports each cycle and walking teachers through grouping decisions.
- Mentor first-year teacher placed on our team, modeling lessons weekly and co-writing her formal observation reflection.
- Run a Wednesday math intervention club for 12 students working a grade level behind; 8 met end-of-year proficiency.

Third Grade Teacher | Holloway Park Elementary, Durham, NC
2018 – 2021

- Taught all core subjects to a self-contained class of 22; held parent conferences twice per quarter, with 95% attendance.
- Piloted a writer's workshop model later adopted by the full third-grade team after student narrative scores climbed two rubric bands.
- Built classroom library of roughly 600 leveled titles using DonorsChoose and PTA microgrants totaling $3,800.
- Served on the school's PBIS committee and rewrote the cafeteria expectations chart used building-wide.
