

Jonathan Phillips

Fashion Stylist

Fashion stylist with seven years of editorial, e-commerce, and celebrity work across print and digital. Comfortable running shoots from mood board to wrap, and known for pulling on tight timelines without burning designer relationships.

CONTACT INFORMATION

(347) 555-0182

priya.ramaswamy@example.com

Brooklyn, NY

KEY SKILLS

- Editorial styling
- E-commerce and lookbook styling
- Showroom pulls and returns
- Mood board and reference decks
- Steaming, taping, and set fitting
- Vintage sourcing
- Airtable and Milanote
- Budget tracking
- On-set client management

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2021 - Present

Fashion Stylist | Meridian & Vale Studio, Brooklyn, NY

- Style 3-4 editorial and campaign shoots per month for clients including a mid-size denim label and two independent beauty brands.
- Built a working rolodex of 140+ showroom and press contacts, cutting average pull-in time from four days to under 48 hours.
- Lead a shoot day team of 2 assistants and coordinate with hair, makeup, and photo for cohesive look direction.
- Negotiated loan terms and return logistics that kept the studio's damage-and-loss chargebacks under $600 across the year.
- Style-directed a spring lookbook that the client's press team placed in Refinery29 and Nylon.

2018 - 2021

Assistant Stylist | House of Corvin, New York, NY

- Supported a senior stylist on editorial covers, red carpet fittings, and lookbook shoots for contemporary womenswear clients.
- Ran daily pulls and returns across roughly 30 showrooms in Manhattan, tracking every piece in a shared Airtable log.
- Prepped racks, tagged samples, and steamed on set for shoot days ranging from 8 to 14 hours.
- Sourced hard-to-find vintage pieces from The RealReal, 1stDibs, and archive dealers on short notice.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Fashion Design, Pratt Institute, 2018